Mrs. Beckley

Mrs. Beckley just wishes to say that she will be glad to see you on DOLLAR DAY. The many bargains she will have to show you will be of much interest to you, I know.
A dollar for flower, a dollar for feather,
A dollar for hat and all together.
Now this is a day you must not forget,
Be sure and come or you'll always regret.
Come one come all,
Come large come small
And see what a dollar will do.
"Everything in the Millinery line."

The Pleiades Book Club met with Mrs. F. A. Henderson on October 2. An election was held in which Mrs. C. E. Abernethy was elected president, and Miss Lenore Sourbeer, secretary. The following books were selected for the club: "The Lost Prince," "K," "The Turmoil," "The Keeper of the Door," "Michael O'Hara," and "The Money Master." Refreshments which consisted of iced tea and sandwiches, were served. The next meeting of the club will be held October 20 with Mrs. James C. Shuford.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS HEAR NEW PREACHER

Rev. W. E. Murray, the new pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran church, filled the pulpit at both services Sunday and made a most favorable impression on the two large congregations. The morning subject was "Christian Service," and the minister showed how Christ, with the basin and towel, performed the most menial service in order to teach a wholesome lesson. Other illustrations were given and at the conclusion of the sermon Mr. Murray spoke of his desire to render service in this community and asked for the co-operation of the membership. The congregation of Holy Trinity will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 at the church in order to get acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Murray. It is hoped that every member will be present.

VERY OLD MAN IS SERVING IN GERMANY

(By the Associated Press)
Berlin, Oct. 4.—The man who probably is the oldest to serve actively in the German army is 87-year-old Chief Hospital Inspector Engel of Thale, who went through the campaign of 1870-71 as hospital inspector, then became barracks inspector, retired five years ago on a pension and then enlisted for the present war. He was first called upon to organize a hospital in Oschersleben, and then was put in charge of the institution in Thale, with its 468 beds.
Max Metzger of Landau of the Palatinate, aged 70, another veteran of 1870, is one of the comparatively few whose son and grandson are actively serving along with him in the war. He volunteered from Karlsruhe last fall and now is a non-commissioned officer in the Grenadier Body Guards. His son, Siegmund Metzger, aged 44, is a corporal in a force stationed at Karlsruhe. The latter's son, seventeen years old, is a non-commissioned officer in a Baden infantry regiment now at the front.

MANY WOMEN IN COLLEGES OF GERMANY

(By the Associated Press)

Berlin, Oct. 4.—Women have taken advantage as never before of the absence of men from the various German universities to strive for the higher education that not so many years ago was denied them.

During the last semester which fell entirely in peace times 4,310 women were registered at the various institutions. The number has increased to 4,570 during the past half year, constituting a percentage increase of women attending German universities of from 6.74 to 8.54. In the entire past six years the percentage has increased only 2.7.

The actual increase in point of number is not as great in two earlier years, when the figures jumped by 680 and 478 respectively. The 1915 figures however have been held down somewhat by the absence of American, Russian, English and Swiss women who customarily are enrolled, and who, during the war, have been absent. The number of women studying medicine shows the largest increase, rising from 974 to 1,150. Five years ago there were but 512. There are 2,258 studying philology and history, against 2,120; 862 studying mathematics, against 761; 170 studying political science, against 132; 73 studying law, against 57; 42 studying dentistry, against 51; 7 studying theology, against 16; and 12 studying pharmacy, against 14.

The southern German universities have suffered losses and the Prussian institutions have gained, in number of women students. The attendance includes—1,023 at Berlin; 492 at Bonn; 388 at Munich; 277 at Hebrurg; 262 at Heidelberg; 242 at Goettingen; 240 at Muenster; 230 at Leipzig; 225 at Breslau; 171 at the new university of Frankfurt; 151 at Freiburg; 150 at Koenigsberg; 137 at Jena; 122 at Halle; 98 at Kiel; 78 at Greifswald; 50 at Tuebingen; 56 at Strassburg; 43 at Wuerzburg; 32 at Giessen; 28 at Erlangen, and 34 at Rostock.

The number of women students at German technical schools has increased this year to 119, as against 82 last year and 68 two years ago. Of these, 29 are taking architecture, 28 chemistry and pharmacy, two engineering, four electric-technic, and 65 languages.

CAUGHT BEAR AND OPOSSUM IN TRAPS AT SAME TIME

Washington, N. C., Oct. 4.—Beaufort county men who set traps in "Sunset valley," where bears had been molesting stock, caught a bear weighing 135 pounds and in a trap close by an opossum. Both animals were "laid it on the other."
